

Honesty. Pass it On.

Vocabulary & Writing or Discussion Activity

Extend the experience your students had at Exercising Your Character with this video and a writing assignment about honesty. The video and its message can easily be the basis for a group discussion about character and honesty.

Suggested Lesson:

Students watch the video about honesty and a teen's decision to return a lost purse.

Students then reflect on the story told in the video by:

- Discussing or writing about how the video relates to honesty.
- Choosing vocabulary words (from the list below) for the following:
 - Describe how each vocabulary word relates to the people and situation described in the video.
 - What might the teen have been considering before he made his decision (time, safety, alternatives, etc.)?
 - Students identify what they would do if faced with this situation. Have they been in a similar situation? What happened?

Vocabulary words:

Courage

Integrity

Responsibility

Effort

Initiative

Compassion

Trustworthiness

Determination

Critical thinking
