

A Ray Character Award & a Nobel Peace Prize

Some days begin or end with news that has the power to make  our hearts feel heavy. Such was the way we began our morning yesterday, September 13, 2009.

As we awoke to the morning news, we learned that our friend, Norman Borlaug, had passed away from lymphoma late the previous evening.