

The power of our words – a few lessons from the Tucson shooting

The power of our words – a few lessons from the Tucson shooting

Good character: The foundation for crucial conversations

Shirley Poertner, president of Poertner Consulting Group, gives us her thoughts on how the Six Pillars of Character can help you communicate.

Bet they aren't dancing to the Six Pillar Shuffle

We're fortunate to count many school educators and administrators as friends. In fact, you'll be seeing many of them participate in our guest blogs. Here's a contribution from Brad Buck, Associate Superintendent for School Improvement at Waukee Community Schools.