

Everyday Leadership

Think of a “lollipop moment” in your life in which someone impacted the course of your life. Have you told that person how they impacted you? If not, write them, call them, or text them to let them know how they changed your life for the better. Watch the following Ted Talk on Everyday Leadership.

For more information on how to be a good leader, click here.

Click here to learn more about character education.