

Learning through life

Learning requires more than attending lectures and regurgitating what you've heard.

Everyday leadership

Watch the following Ted Talk on Everyday Leadership.

Teaching citizenship

You can show good citizenship by being a leader in your school or community. Leadership isn't a job – it is an action. Everyone in your family can be a leader.

We're asking for civility during the presidential debates

This election is the most uncivil in recent memory, and Americans agree. We're calling on the presidential debate moderators to adopt a set of Debate Standards designed to ensure that the 2016 Presidential Debates are fair, informative, and civil.

Books that talk about bullying

Here are a few book suggestions to help start conversations about bullies and bullying.

Redefining competition

“Go Hawks, Beat State!” and its counterpart will be oft-uttered phrases when the two teams compete throughout the year.

How to raise an un-entitled kid

Raising children to become good and caring human beings can be challenging. Use these tips to help you raise un-entitled kids!