

6-12 Character Education Lesson Plan: Connecting with Others

Help students understand the importance of connecting to other individuals. Develop connection strategies and provide an opportunity for students to practice connecting with others.

45 tips to teach kids to stop peer cruelty

The effects of peer cruelty are far-reaching and can cause immense stress, anxiety, health problems, depression, and humiliation that may result in serious mental health issues for our children.

Courage

You get in life what you have the courage to ask for.
character education quotations.

The wind and the sun

Moral: Gentle persuasion is stronger than force.

The light from within

The dog at the well

Always listen to the advice given to you by your parents, and do not ignore them.

Teaching Caring: Friendships

You can be caring by being a good friend.

Community

Our strength will grow through community. Character education quotations.

Is your commitment as binding as a contract?

We make commitments every day. But do we take our commitments seriously?

Be an encourager

Be an encourager. The world has plenty of critics already. Character education quotations.