

exercising YOUR CHARACTER™

Take time for a class discussion about expectations for Exercising Your Character. Knowing what is expected before an event can help shape the outcome.

Using the format below, make a list of expectations for the group to follow.

Consider having each student sign the Classroom Pact as a way to show their commitment to the expectations and to having a good time at the game.

Review the list before boarding the bus.

OUR CLASSROOM PACT

In order to treat each other with care and respect so that we can all enjoy Exercising Your Character, we will:
